- * Refreshments available

There are a host of features that make this book an essential addition to your birding library.

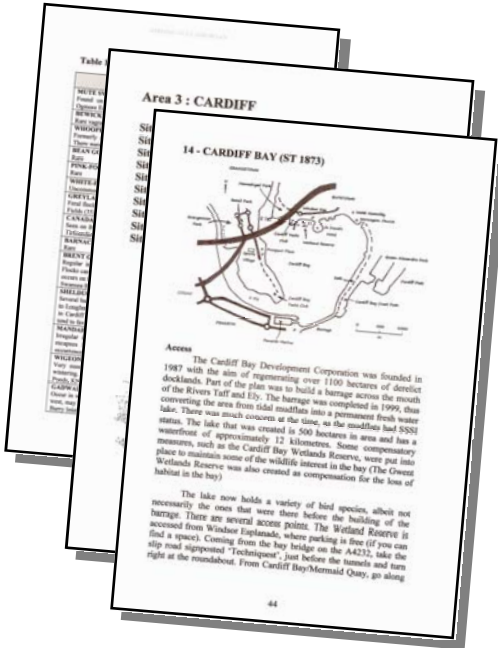

Foreword by Iolo Williams

Details of where to find the best birds

Hints and tips from some of the county's most experienced bird watchers

Tables indicating where to find target species and county rarities

53 site guides with sketch maps, access details, species lists, when to visit

Sites are arranged by area - helping plan "birding days out"

Superb colour photos and vignettes from some of the county's best known photographers and artists

Full colour county map

Useful birding contacts

Map references to help pinpoint sites

Signed copies and dedications will be available on launch day

If you can't be at the launch, order your copy by completing and returning the form below. Alternatively you could buy a copy at one of our indoor meetings. See the GBC website at glamorganbirds.org.uk for details.
